LA Phil Resident Fellows

A New Initiative Bridging Excellence and Inclusion

Become an LA Phil Resident Fellow and make history as the LA Phil launches a centerpiece initiative of its Centennial.

The fellowship invests in the highest-level emerging professional musicians and is designed to increase diversity within American orchestras.

"This initiative is going to help usher extraordinarily talented musicians through doors that used to be closed to them."

-John Lofton, LA Phil's Bass Trombone and LA Phil Resident Fellows Orchestra Chair

Up to five LA Phil Resident Fellows will have the opportunity to:

- Benefit from formal career development, mentorship, and community engagement opportunities
- Perform at orchestral, and education concerts at Walt Disney Concert Hall, the Hollywood Bowl and in community settings
- Receive mentorship from LA Phil musicians and assistance with audition preparation
- · Receive a salary and benefits package as well as stipends for housing, further study and travel for auditions

Supported in part by a grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
