The 2019 Guide

Editor's Note

What's your summer music craving—opera in the Swiss Alps? Perhaps it's chamber music in a California vineyard or prepared piano at a Massachusetts modern art museum? Such is a sampling from the menu of options in our sixth annual Guide to Summer Festivals—at nearly 100 entries, it's our largest yet, and certainly the most entertaining to peruse.

Just a few highlights: A new production of the Mozart Requiem at the Aix-en-Provence Festival; the "Loud Weekend" at Bang on a Can's annual Festival at Mass MOCA in the Berkshires; the world premiere of Poul Ruders's The Thirteenth Child at Santa Fe Opera, where the stage is often open to a view of the sun setting amid the Jemez Mountain range; pianist Yuja Wang (Musical America's 2017 Artist of the Year) performing in Croatia at the Dubrovnik Summer Festival; Fabio Luisi conducting Beethoven's Sixth Symphony in Tuscany, at the Chigiana International Festival; the Pacifica Quartet in a Napa Valley winery at Music in the Vineyards; Handel's Ariodante at the Drottningholms Slottsteater in Switzerland. Opera in the Ozarks, in Eureka Springs, AR, has Mark Adamo's Little Women on the docket; while the Mark Morris Dance Group will premiere a new work set to Erik Satie's Sports et divertissements at Mostly Mozart in New York. Also, as proof that there is no spot on earth too remote for live music of any sort to thrive, the 22nd annual Orcas Island Chamber Music Festival, in the San Juan Islands off the coast of Washington, will present Susan Graham in recital while the Miró Quartet will give the world premiere of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Kevin Puts's latest opus.

And they say the season slows down in summer.

Regards,

Susan Elliott

ARTOSPHERE: ARKANSAS' ARTS AND NATURE FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The esteemed Artosphere Festival Orchestra (AFO) returns to Northwest Arkansas in June to delight audiences as the musical centerpiece of the 10th Annual Artosphere: Arkansas' Arts + Nature Festival. Presented by Walton Arts Center and featuring music, film, visual arts, and innovative collaborative performances and events, Artosphere celebrates ways the arts can connect us to the natural world. The AFO features top musicians from around the world who perform symphonic, chamber, and community engagement "pop-up"-style performances across the region. Under the baton of internationally acclaimed Maestro Corrado Rovaris and with more than 90 premier musicians from distinguished symphonies and music programs across the globe, AFO performances are held at Walton Arts Center in Fayetteville and Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art in Bentonville.

This year's Chapel Music Series offers chamber music in local chapels and architectural marvels with groups including the Aeolus Quartet, Seraph Brass, and Sam Reider and The Human Hands, among others. Also featuring the renowned Dover Quartet. And the annual Artosphere Trail Mix enables audiences to hike or bike between stages while enjoying art and entertainment at stops along the way. ASPEN MUSIC FESTIVAL AND SCHOOL

As the Aspen Music Festival and School celebrates its 70th anniversary, Music Director Robert Spano leads a season themed "Being American," with programming that reflects the diversity of the American experience. Works include music by Gershwin, Ives, Barber, Bernstein, and Copland; settings of literary works by Whitman, Dickinson, Melville, and Poe; works by émigrés such as Bartók, Rachmaninoff, and Stravinsky; and works by more recent American composers such as Wynton Marsalis, Phillip Glass, John Adams, Andrew Norman, Kati Agócs, Gabriela Lena Frank, and Vijay Iyer.

Highlights will include appearances by Renée Fleming, Leonard Slatkin, Daniil Trifonov, Seong-Jin Cho, Simone Dinnerstein, Midori, and more; the complete Brandenburg Concertos; Christopher Theofanidis's new concerto for percussion and orchestra; Mahler's Symphony No. 2, Resurrection, as the final concert. The Aspen Opera Center will present Stephen Sondheim's A Little Night Music and Mozart's Le nozze di Figaro, as well as a concert performance of Missy Mazzoli's acclaimed chamber opera Proving Up. Additional Festival performers include Darrett Adkins, Kristóf Baráti, Inon Barnatan, Nicola Benedetti, Jonathan Biss, Yefim Bronfman, Renaud Capuçon, Sarah Chang, Augustin Hadelich, and more, as well as the American Brass Quintet, American String Quartet, Colorado Symphony Orchestra Chorus, Emerson String Quartet, Escher String Quartet, JCT Trio, Pacifica Quartet, and Seraphic Fire.

BACH CHOIR OF BETHLEHEM: 112TH BETHLEHEM BACH FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Our 112th Bethlehem Bach Festival awaits you, with Festival spotlight artist Anthony Cecere, French Horn; and vocal soloists Rosa Lamoreaux, soprano, Cassandra Lemoine, soprano; Krisztina Szabò, mezzo soprano; Isaiah Bell, tenor; William Sharp, baritone; David Newman, bass.

Fridays at 12 noon: FREE performance: Bach Outdoors! Principal violist Paul Miller and friends present arrangements of some of Bach's most beloved masterpieces on "modern" instruments. At 4 pm: Chamber Music in the Saal of the Moravian Museum: Ronn McFarlane, lute, and Mindy Rosenfeld, flute and recorder, present Baroque, Renaissance, and traditional Celtic music. "Bach at 4" features members of The Bach Choir and Bach Festival Orchestra: Festival premiere of Bach's Cantata 111, Was Mein Gott will, das g'scheh allzeit and other works. At 8 pm: "Bach at 8" (full choir and orchestra): Bach Cantatas 146 and 149; Haydn's Second Concerto for Horn in D Major, Anthony Cecere principal horn.

Saturdays at 10:30 am: Ifor Jones Chamber Music Concert. Premiere of a new work by distinguished composer Gwyneth Walker, The Day Is Done, performed by Bel Canto Youth Chorus and members of The Bach Festival Orchestra. J.S. Bach: the rarely heard Concerto for Three and Four Harpsichords BWV 1064-1065. 2:30 pm: Mass in B Minor, the centerpiece of our Festival since 1900. 7:00 pm: Zimmermann's Coffee House offers chamber music "café style" in a relaxed setting, with German food and drink, and features young artists—chosen by audition—with Greg Funfgeld and friends.

BARD MUSIC FESTIVAL/BARD SUMMERSCAPE

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

In 2019, its 30th-anniversary year, the Bard Music Festival will explore the life, work, and legacy of Erich Wolfgang Korngold (1897–1957), the last great exponent of the vocabulary of late Romanticism, whose career is the mirror image of the peculiar trajectory of 20th-century music. Highlights include a semi-staged performance of Korngold's Die tote Stadt; a program of music for film centered around The Adventures of Robin Hood, featuring works by Max Steiner, Franz Waxman, Bernard Herrmann, and Alfred Newman; and a look at America through operettas from the early 20th century. The Festival will open with an all-Korngold program, surveying his work beginning with Der Schneemann, through scores connected to his career in Hollywood. Programs will highlight the work of teachers and admirers; influences of popular music; development of the film musical; and music written during and after World War II. Audience will have the rare opportunity to hear Korngold's Piano Concerto for the Left Hand, Op. 17 (performed by Orion Weiss), as well as his majestic Symphony, Op. 40, among other works. Orchestral forces include the American Symphony Orchestra (ASO) and The Orchestra Now, conducted by Leon Botstein.

Botstein conducts the ASO in the U.S. premiere of Korngold's 1927 opera The Miracle of Heliane (Das Wunder der Heliane) in a new production directed by Christian R ath with sets and costumes by Esther Bialas. The cast includes Lithuanian soprano Ausrine Stundyte in a rare U.S. appearance, and rising star tenor Daniel Brenna. SummerScape also presents Acquanetta, a music-theater work composed by Michael Gordon with libretto by Deborah Artman and directed by Daniel Fish. The festival opens with Grace & Mercy by choreographer Ronald K. Brown, featuring an original score created and performed by Meshell Ndegeocello, alongside live performances by Jennifer Holliday and Peven Everett.

BAY CHAMBER CONCERTS SCREEN DOOR FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Bay Chamber's Screen Door Festival glimmers with variety. While you can get your Bach, Beethoven, or Brahms fix at the Festival, you will also experience novel, one-of-a-kind creative happenings—musical flights of imagination for audience and artists alike. This Festival shines a light on living composers' work for dynamic percussion groups, or unconventional combinations of string instruments with guitars and electronics, or mind-expanding combinations of projected visual art with physical performers and classical musicians, or dazzling harpsichord or theorbo players performing in a recently written chamber opera. And Rockport, Maine, is a destination with a craggy and rugged shoreline along a bay dotted with hundreds of uninhabited islands, and crowned by pined mountains. The musical venues are approachable, sometimes historic, and always New-England-beautiful. This high note of summer is famously laid back: Leave stodgy at the door, wander around with a glass of wine, and introduce yourself to the young artists who just lit up your senses, and your mind.

CABRILLO FESTIVAL OF CONTEMPORARY MUSIC

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

America's longest-running festival of new orchestral music celebrates its 57th season with three world premieres, one U.S. premiere, and nine West Coast premieres. The Festival is led by Music Director and Conductor Cristian Măcelaru. Each summer audiences are joined by both preeminent and emerging composers, an orchestra of dedicated professional musicians, and renowned guest artists from across the globe to give voice to works that are rarely more than a year or two old. With a professional training workshop for early career conductors and composers, open rehearsals, educational programming, and a street fair showcasing local performers and artists, the Festival offers dozens of opportunities for meaningful engagement.

This year's Festival features 12 composers in residence, including Preben Antonsen, Clarice Assad, Anna Clyne, Dan Dediú, Melody Eotvos, Vivian Fung, Jake Heggie, Kristin Kuster, Hannah Lash, Wynton Marsalis, and Nina Young. Guest artists include Clarice Assad, Jamie Barton, Roomful of Teeth, Inbal Negev, Sarah Fuller, and Nicola Benedetti.

CARAMOOR CENTER FOR MUSIC AND THE ARTS

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Caramoor presents a variety of top-notch music this summer, with many concerts unique to the region, ranging from cutting-edge compositions to the finest in period-instrument early music, and from orchestral and chamber masterpieces to jazz, roots, and world music. Seven weeks of programming continues to build on longstanding traditions while increasingly embodying the full potential of Caramoor's spectacular grounds, stellar performance venues, and notable history.

Highlights include a spotlight on the music of Pulitzer Prize-winner Caroline Shaw plus music from 14 other living composers, including regional premieres; a rare opportunity to hear peerless French pianist Pierre-Laurent Aimard perform Messiaen's complete Catalogue d'oiseaux; and a recital by Russian superstar pianist Daniil Trifonov. Among the performers of Shaw's pieces are Grammy-winning vocal group Roomful of Teeth, singer Davóne Tines, and pianist Jonathan Biss, who plays the New York premiere of Shaw's new piano concerto, Watermark. Concerto performances by cellist Alisa Weilerstein and violinist Christian Tetzlaff with the resident Orchestra of St. Luke's open and close the season. Also in this season's vocal lineup: Renowned mezzo-soprano Vivica Genaux appears in concert with New York Baroque Incorporated; the Boston Early Music Festival presents French chamber operas; and Anthony Roth Costanzo and Paul Appleby perform with composer/pianist Matthew Aucoin. Chamber offerings include concerts featuring the Takács, Dover, Omer, and Aizuri Quartets; and superlative mandolinist Avi Avital performs with the Venice Baroque Orchestra. Caramoor's Jazz Festival is headlined by the Eddie Palmieri Salsa Orchestra, the Milk Carton Kids headline the American Roots Festival, world music artists are featured throughout the season, and an ongoing exhibition of sound artwork is dispersed throughout the grounds.

THE INTERNATIONAL MUSIC FESTIVAL 'CHOPIN AND HIS EUROPE'

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

15th International Festival "Chopin and his Europe": From Chopin to Moniusko

This jubilee edition will be dominated by operatic themes. During the Festival, not only the works of Moniuszko himself will be presented, but also the works that build the context for them—Polish and European artists.

August 17, 5 pm: Christoph Prégardien, tenor; Christoph Schnackertz, piano; Program: Moniuszko, Brahms, Chopin

8 pm: Akie Amou, soprano; Monika Ledzion-Porczyńska, mezzo-soprano; Satoshi Nishimura, tenor; Rafał Siwek, bass; Martha Argerich; Kazuyoshi Akiyama, conductor; Choir of the Podlasie Opera and Philharmonic; Hiroshima Symphony Orchestra; Sinfonia Varsovia; Program: Ludwig van Beethoven Symphony No. 9 in D minor, Op. 125

August 18: Symphonic concert with Nelson Freire, piano; Tatsuya Shimono, conductor; Hiroshima Symphony Orchestra; Sinfonia Varsovia. August 19: Benjamin Grosvenor piano recital. August 23: Symphonic concert with Howard Shelley, period piano, conductor; Eric Lu, piano; Charles Richard-Hamelin, piano; Sinfonia Varsovia

August 26: Yulianna Avdeeva piano recital. August 28: Symphonic concert with Alena Baeva, violin;

Eric Hoepfich, clarinet; Orchestra of the Eighteenth Century. August 30: Chamber concert with Sebastian Knauer, Daniel Hope, Guarneri "Lipiński," violin

WHAT DISTINGUISHES THIS FESTIVAL?

One important strand to the Festival program is historical performance—presenting works as they were originally heard, on period pianos in the possession of the Fryderyk Chopin Institute; beyond this, what remains key to the concept of Chopin and His Europe are top-class performances of Polish music.

CRESTED BUTTE MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Now in its 23rd year, the Crested Butte Music Festival presents outstanding performances in diverse musical genres with accompanying hands-on educational programs each summer. In 2018, over 130 world-class artists from all over the nation participated in the festival. Residents and visitors of rural Gunnison County have access to performances and educational opportunities. Local outreach efforts include collaborations with the music and art curriculum at the Crested Butte Community School, while other educational programs like the Frank Vignola Guitar Camp attract gypsy jazz guitar students and enthusiasts of all ages. The Bluegrass Kids Camp is a folk and bluegrass-based string program for children learning fiddle, mandolin, and guitar and culminates in ensemble performances.

This year marks the third year of two new initiatives for developing professionals and passionate amateur musicians. The Orchestral Fellows Program provides conservatory and music school students the unique opportunity to perform orchestral concerts and chamber music, side-by-side with the professional musicians in the Festival Orchestra. The Chamber Music Intensive caters to serious amateur musicians who will be coached by world-class musicians. The intensive provides focused chamber music study with ample performance experience.

GRAFENEKG FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

In this season Grafenegg Festival takes place from 16 August to 8 September 2019. Between these dates, top orchestras, outstanding artists, and rising stars will gather to present a varied festival program.

Pluralism and diverse musical philosophies are at the forefront for the artists: the voices of Camilla Nylund, Sonya Yoncheva, and Christiane Karg demonstrate the breadth of the art of singing. Great orchestras from all over the world offer their very own approaches to interpretation: the legendary Concertgebouw Orchestra from Amsterdam, top ensembles from Rotterdam and Birmingham, the Mariinsky Orchestra from Saint Petersburg, the original-sound specialists Orchestre des Champs-Élysées, and the Vienna Philharmonic. The orchestras in residence will once more be the European Union Youth Orchestra (EUYO) with its young, enthusiastic musicians from all over Europe and the Tonkünstler Orchestra with its Music Director Yutaka Sado. This year's composer in residence is Peter Ruzicka, who contributes a fanfare to open the Festival and another commissioned work while also leading the composer-conductor workshop INK STILL WET.

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The majestic foothills of the Teton Mountain Range promise a sublime, serene backdrop for the Grand Teton Music Festival's 58th season. Offering inspiration, rejuvenation, and wonderment for all, the Festival honors the breath-taking environment it calls home as well as those composers and works that draw inspiration from nature.

The Festival's 2019 lineup includes more than 60 events over seven weeks including orchestral concerts, chamber music, lectures, and community events. At the heart of Grand Teton Music Festival is the Festival Orchestra made up of top musicians from America's best orchestras and led by Music Director Donald Runnicles. The celebratory opening week includes singer-pianist Michael Feinstein, Patriotic Pops, and a fundraising gala featuring Carmina Burana. Additional Festival Orchestra concerts include Rachmaninoff's Third Piano Concerto with Yefim Bronfman; Schumann's Cello Concerto with Alisa Weilerstein; Mozart's Fifth Violin Concerto (Turkish) with Hilary Hahn; Shostakovich's Second Piano Concerto with Denis Kozhukhin; Glazunov's Saxophone Concerto Branford Marsalis; and Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto with Augustin Hadelich. Artists presented in recital include pianist Stephen Hough; the Los Angeles Guitar Quartet; pianist, vocalist, and nine-time Grammy Award winner Norah Jones; the Takács Quartet; piano duo Anderson & Roe; violinist Augustin Hadelich with pianist Orion Weiss; and Broadway star Kristin Chenoweth. Nature-inspired works run throughout the seven weeks, including Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring, Anna Clyne's Midnight Hour, Sibelius's En Saga, and Lyadov's The Enchanted Lake.

GREEN MOUNTAIN CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

During its four-week 2019 season, Green Mountain will offer seven concerts featuring the 35 distinguished faculty of our summer conservatory, in creative programs of music at the heart of the chamber repertory, rarely heard 19th- and 20th-century works, and fresh compositional voices of our time. Artist Faculty Concerts will take place on June 26 and 28, July 3, 5, 10, 12, and 19. The season will conclude with a special concert by the Emerson String Quartet on July 21, with works by Dvořák, Barber, and Beethoven.

Participants in our intensive four-week program of solo and chamber music study energize the audience for our Artist Faculty Concert Series. Two hundred string players, ages 14-30, are immersed in the Festival's atmosphere of focused professionalism, with four hours of daily individual practice, daily chamber music rehearsals, lessons, ensemble coachings, master classes, and extensive student performance opportunities in the concert hall and in unconventional venues in the Burlington community. Guest master classes will include Matt Haimovitz, Violaine Melançon, Paul Neubauer, and Philip Setzer.

26TH ISTANBUL JAZZ FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Istanbul Jazz Festival has been organized every year in July since 1994 by the Istanbul Foundation for Culture and Arts (İKSVA). İKSVA chose to build this festival around jazz music because it believes jazz is one of the most innovative musical genres—open to new ideas, inclusive and accessible. Accordingly, İKSVA organizes a broad-spectrum event that not only brings together music lovers and musicians, but also supports the work of jazz musicians in Turkey and encourages new productions.

Following the success of the editions in 2017 and 2018, the Festival will once again organize Vitrin: Contemporary Music from Turkey, a showcase and networking event dedicated to contemporary music from Turkey. With its centuries-old music tradition and vibrant contemporary music scene, Turkey has always been one of the main hubs of music in the world, taking inspiration from both East and West, making it a “musical silk road” where influences flow in each direction. While traditional values are preserved and refined on one hand, new styles and sounds emerge through cultural dialogue on the other. Vitrin aims to showcase the current state of all these influences, with the best examples in different genres: jazz, rock, electronic music, ethnic sounds, and global fusions.

47TH ISTANBUL MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Istanbul Music Festival, organized by the Istanbul Foundation for Culture and Arts (İKSVA) under the sponsorship of E.C.A. Presdöküm Sanayii A.Ş., will be held from 11 to 30 June 2019. The Festival, which celebrates its 47th edition, presents a program built around this year’s theme, “Darkness of Being, Lightness of Being,” which will focus on the dualities in life such as good-bad, happiness-sadness, birth-death, and their impact on music and its creation process. The Festival aims to emphasize the importance of music as a means to enlightenment in times of darkness.

LUCERNE FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The Festival will address the socio-political theme of "Power" from a wide variety of musical perspectives. The Mozart-Da Ponte Cycle will feature the three operas: Le nozze di Figaro, Don Giovanni, and Così fan tutte. Teodor Currentzis will conduct the musicAeterna Orchestra and Chorus of Perm Opera, along with soloists including Dimitris Tiliakos, Alex Esposito, Paula Murrihy, and Ekaterina Scherbachenko, and—in their first-ever collaboration—Cecilia Bartoli. Thomas Kessler, our composer-in-residence, is a Swiss composer and pioneer of electronic music whose work is pertinent to the summer theme.

To open the 2019 Summer Festival, Music Director Riccardo Chailly and the Lucerne Festival Orchestra will focus on Russian composer Sergei Rachmaninoff. Chailly will also conduct Tchaikovsky's Fourth Symphony and Mahler's Sixth Symphony. Yannick Nézet-Séguin will appear as guest conductor with Shostakovich's Fourth Symphony and Beethoven's Violin Concerto, featuring "artiste étoile" Leonidas Kavakos as the soloist. The Lucerne Festival Alumni musicians will work with Riccardo Chailly for the first time as well as with composers-in-residence Thomas Kessler and Sir George Benjamin.

MOSTLY MOZART FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Synonymous with summer in New York City, the Mostly Mozart Festival offers a range of multi-genre and multi-disciplinary performances, emerging artists, ancillary lectures, late-night soirees, films, and public events. As in past years, the Mostly Mozart Festival Orchestra, led by Music Director Louis Langrée, forms the backbone of the Festival, with music of Mozart at the core. In 2019, further repertoire spans from Vivaldi's The Four Seasons to Alfred Schnittke's Moz-ART a la Haydn, as well as the continuation of Langrée's exploration of Brahms symphonies. The Festival Orchestra concerts are often complemented by full-scale, landmark productions from visiting music ensembles, theater, and dance companies. Beloved returning artists include violinist Joshua Bell, pianists Pierre-Laurent Aimard and Jeremy Denk, the Takács Quartet, and Mark Morris Dance Group; among others, violinists Vilde Frang and Pekka Kuusisto make their festival debuts. The intrepid International Contemporary Ensemble meanwhile enters its ninth year as artists-in-residence.

MUSIC HOUSE INTERNATIONAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Music House, directed by Kimberly Fisher, principal second violin of The Philadelphia Orchestra, is a summer festival in Bryn Mawr, PA, in which college students and young professionals work with principal players and other members of The Philadelphia Orchestra in: private lessons and master classes; solo performance and audition preparation; symphony and repertory orchestra rehearsals; and chamber music. At the end of the 17-day Festival, musicians are invited to perform 10 minutes of solo repertoire and select excerpts in a Mock Auditions setting for assistant conductor of The Philadelphia Orchestra, Kensho Watanabe. The program offers intensive repertoire exposure to works regularly found on major orchestral auditions including: Strauss Don Juan, Dvořák Symphony 8, Mozart Symphony 39, Brahms Symphony 2, Stravinsky's The Firebird, and more.

Music House also includes ample solo performance opportunities including two concerto competitions through which winners perform duo concertos with members of The Philadelphia Orchestra and as soloists with the Ocean City Pops and other professional or community orchestras. 2019 Music House teaching and master class faculty members include the following members of The Philadelphia Orchestra: Assistant Concertmaster Marc Rovetti; Assistant Principal Second Violin Dara Morales; Principal Cello Hai-Ye Ni; Assistant Principal Bass Joseph Conyers; Principal Clarinet Ricardo Morales; Co-Principal Bassoon Mark Gigliotti; Associate Principal Horn Jeffrey Lang; Co-Principal Trombone Matthew Vaughn; Paul Krzywicki, retired, The Philadelphia Orchestra and Faculty at the Curtis Institute of Music; and many others.

OFF THE HOOK ARTS SUMMERFEST 2019: PERCEPTION/DECEPTION, ILLUSION/CONFUSION

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Off the Hook Arts SummerFest 2019: Perception/Deception, Illusion/Confusion brings together music, neuroscience, psychology, magic, comedy, painting, and photography in a unique festival to explore the mysteries, methods, facts, and fantasies of human perception, and to uncover techniques of deception and illusion in the arts and in life.

The seven-part Concert Series and eight -part interdisciplinary Dynamics Series of the 2019 summer season feature world-class musicians in intimate settings with programs that imagine alternate realities (what would Chopin sound like as a pianist working in NYC today?), search for the ghosts that “haunt” certain great works, and reveal the secrets of deception and humor in works of music and art. The Viewpoints Series of lectures explores topics of cognitive psychology and the arts. Other SummerFest 2019 activities include an art show and the Off the Hook Arts Summer Academy, offering Music, Art and STEM programming for children of all ages.

OJAI MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The Ojai Music Festival, June 6-9, 2019, celebrates and explores the creative breadth of Music Director Barbara Hannigan, as conductor, singer, and mentor. Joining Hannigan will be the U.S. debut of her mentoring initiative for young professional artists, Equilibrium (EQ) and the U.S. debut of the orchestral collective from Amsterdam, LUDWIG, with whom Hannigan made her Grammy Award-winning conducting debut CD Crazy Girl Crazy in 2017. Returning to Ojai will be 2015 Music Director Steven Schick, who will both perform and conduct, and the JACK Quartet performing works by John Zorn, Tyshawn Sorey, and Arnold Schoenberg.

Highlights include the staged production of Stravinsky's The Rake's Progress with Hannigan conducting and members of EQ as the cast; Hannigan as singer in Gérard Grisey's Quatre chants pour franchir le seuil; John Zorn's Jumalattaret; "Girl Crazy Suite," a special arrangement by Bill Elliott of songs from the Gershwin musical; Hannigan conducting Vivier's Lonely Child, Schoenberg's Verklärte Nacht, and Stravinsky's complete ballet Pulcinella. In addition the Festival will give a concert in memoriam of 2005 Music Director Oliver Knussen.

OPERA IN THE OZARKS

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Opera in the Ozarks is a unique summer music festival in beautiful Eureka Springs, AR. Founded in 1950, it has also earned the reputation of being a prominent training program for emerging opera professionals—alumni have gone on to sing on the world's major operatic stages.

Performing under the baton of Artistic Director Thomas Cockrell, dozens of professional artists and musicians come from across the country for a month of performances. The 2019 performance season spans June 21 thru July 19, featuring Puccini's La bohème, Mozart's The Abduction from the Seraglio, and Adamo's Little Women—a total of 22 performances of fully staged operas. There will also be a children's opera, as well as Broadway cabaret, chamber music, and a Taste of Opera event (dinner). Locations vary throughout the multi-county region for these outreach events. Tickets will be available after May 1, 2019.

OXFORD LIEDER FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

“Tales of Beyond: Magic, Myths and Mortals” is the theme for 2019, with the Festival inhabiting a world of storytelling and fairy tales from Peer Gynt to the Erl-King to Orpheus and Eurydice. The BBC National Orchestra of Wales opens the Festival with orchestral songs by Grieg and Schubert sung by Camilla Tilling and Neal Davies. Other visiting singers include Stéphane Degout, Dorothea Röschmann, Ilker Arcayürek, Louise Alder, Christoph Prégardien, Benjamin Appl, and Carolyn Sampson, with chamber music from the Brodsky and Doric Quartets, Imogen Cooper, and others.

The historic city of Oxford provides a stunning backdrop for a fortnight comprising upwards of 100 events featuring many of the world’s leading singers and pianists. A number of intimate concert venues, including the Holywell Music Room—Europe’s oldest purpose-built concert hall—and several college chapels, are ideally suited to song recitals. A complementary series of chamber and piano music, choral works, talks, master classes, and more promise a thrilling and immersive fortnight of exploration, discovery, and inspiration in the heart of Oxford.

OXFORD PIANO FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

As usual, we traverse various schools of pianism, beginning with one of the most longstanding and thrilling: the Russian school. Boris Berezovsky, laureate of the Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow, opens our recital series with a program bookended by Rachmaninov. From Argentina, we welcome Ingrid Fliter, a pianist whose revelatory work on the central European repertoire has been of vital importance. Also making her debut is Beatrice Rana, an emerging pianist of extraordinary intelligence and musicianship still in her mid-twenties. Old friends join us, too: from America, Sergei Babayan returns for an evening dedicated to the music of the piano’s greatest prophet, Frédéric Chopin, while our close associate Menahem Pressler gives a recital that will be full of the atmosphere only he can generate. Steven Osborne’s acute affinity with Olivier Messiaen’s piano works (and one in particular) brings our recital series to a close with another debut appearance.

THE PERLMAN MUSIC PROGRAM CHAMBER MUSIC WORKSHOP

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Led by esteemed cellist and teacher Merry Peckham, PMP's Chamber Music Workshop (CMW) continues to grow into one of the country's most prestigious summer chamber music programs. The workshop invites young artists ages 18 and up to devote three weeks to studying masterworks of the chamber repertoire with an exceptional roster of artist-faculty in Shelter Island, NY. Intensive rehearsals and coachings, absorbing master classes, late night sight-reading sessions and a marathon final concert weekend are all much-loved hallmarks of the workshop. Since 2003, the program has truly become a cherished place to hear today's most gifted young chamber musicians on Long Island's East End.

Open to violinists, violists, cellists, pianists, and ensembles, the CMW is led by an all-star artist-faculty: Kirsten Docter, Joseph Kalichstein, Joel Krosnick, Merry Peckham, Director, Itzhak Perlman, Patrick Romano, Peter Salaff, Roger Tapping, Don Weilerstein, Vivian Hornik-Weilerstein, and Areta Zhulla.

RAVENNA FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

A city by the sea in ancient times, Ravenna still hears its call, and so retains a vocation as a crossroads of peoples and cultures. And in the spirit of Ulysses—as Dante pictures him: ever longing for the next journey and eager to sail “on the high and open sea”—the Festival has never lost its appetite for the great adventure of music and the arts, which has taken its yearly program across all languages, while Ravenna’s heritage sites have served as its many harbors. Now in its 30th edition, the Festival sails the Mediterranean and reaches Athens on the Roads of Friendship, taking the chance to celebrate one of the cradles of western culture. Riccardo Muti is on the stage with pianist Maurizio Pollini for the opening concert.

Among this year’s guest artists are Leōnidas Kavakos, Emmanuelle Krivine with the Orchestre National de France, the Labèque sisters with Giovanni Antonini’s Giardino Armonico. While the Hamburg Ballet and the Martha Graham Dance Company make for a stunning dance section, the rhythm is set by legendary drummers Stewart Copeland of The Police and Nick Mason of Pink Floyd, by the West Coast groove of Ben Harper and by Balkanic-symphonic Goran Bregovic. The journey continues within Ravenna’s ever-surprising basilicas, with the Tallis Scholars for a seven-concerts-in-a-day experience, and with the daily Vespers at San Vitale; then through Dante’s Purgatory with a mystery play, tailor-made for the city where Dante spent his last years and was buried. Ravenna’s long season of music continues from November 1 to 10 with the Autumn Trilogy (Norma, Aida, Carmen).

RAVINIA FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Ravinia’s acclaimed multi-season celebration of Leonard Bernstein continues with the return of his final protégée Marin Alsop, who will lead an encore presentation of Mass with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and the Ravinia premiere of Trouble in Tahiti with the Chicago Philharmonic, soprano Patricia Racette, and baritone Paulo Szot. The films West Side Story and On the Waterfront will be shown with the CSO playing those Bernstein scores live. Alsop will also conduct Mahler’s Symphony of a Thousand. The Ravinia MusicBox Experience Center will open with an immersive Bernstein show created by BRC, the creative force behind Backstage at the Ryman, as well as the Grammy Museum exhibit of Bernstein artifacts.

Renée Fleming and the Emerson String Quartet will join forces for the Chicago premiere of Andre Previn’s Penelope, co-commissioned by Ravinia. Visiting ensembles include the Shanghai Symphony; the Lucerne Symphony; and the Knights performing the complete Candide. The winning entries in Ravinia’s second annual “Bridges” competition for classical/jazz fusion composers will receive their world premieres.

ROCKPORT CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The 2019 Rockport Chamber Music Festival features such world-class artists as the Takács Quartet, pianist Richard Goode, A Far Cry, the incomparable duo David Finckel and Wu Han, and the lauded Handel & Haydn Society presenting Bach's complete Brandenburg Concertos. Threading throughout the Festival this year will be the theme of "Source and Inspiration." According to Artistic Director Barry Shiffman, "This summer, in a wide range of programs, our audience will follow a journey that peels back the layers, letting us peek into that creative process. Whether it is seeing a drawing, reading a text, hearing a rhythm, or even being enamored with a personality, inspiration abounds. The potential for inspiration is around us all every day. While the Festival will explore the many sources that inspired composers and performers, it should also serve as a deep well of inspiration for all who attend."

SANTA FE CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The Santa Fe Chamber Music Festival's 47th season is filled with several exciting firsts. Violinist Ida Kavafian and pianist Peter Serkin perform, for the first time in the Festival's history, the complete cycle of Beethoven's Sonatas for Violin & Piano; conductor David Zinman leads the Festival's inaugural presentation of Britten's Serenade for Tenor, Horn & Strings, featuring tenor Paul Appleby and Berlin Philharmonic principal horn Stefan Dohr in their Festival debuts; and the Music at Noon Series expands to include five Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday concerts, three of which are recitals that celebrate such iconic masterpieces as Schubert's Die Winterreise.

The Festival presents three world premieres (string quartets by Michael Gandolfi and the two participants in the Festival's Young Composers String Quartet Project) and one New Mexico premiere (a monodrama for soprano and ensemble by John Harbison). In addition, Wei Luo gives the world premiere of Marc Neikrug's solo piano piece Poems, and 18 acclaimed artists make their Festival debuts. The Festival also welcomes the return of dozens of longtime collaborators, including mezzo-soprano Susan Graham; pianists Inon Barnatan, Kirill Gerstein, and Shai Wosner; clarinetist David Shifrin; guitarist Łukasz Kuropaczewski; and the Dover, Escher, FLUX, Miami, and Orion String Quartets.

THE SANTA FE OPERA

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The 2019 season presents five operas in 36 performances, a special recital by celebrated American soprano Renée Fleming with The Santa Fe Opera Orchestra, and two Apprentice Scenes performances, running from June 28 to August 24. The Opera's 63rd season, the first led by General Director Robert Meya, Artistic Director Alexander Neef, and Music Director Harry Bicket, explores classic works of the repertory as well as operas new to the Santa Fe Opera and the world's stage.

With its open backstage looking out to the Jemez Mountains, The Santa Fe Opera provides a view of spectacular sunsets—which, this season, transports you to the ancient shores of Ceylon while immersing you in the lush, exotic tones of Bizet's The Pearl Fishers. Don't miss one of opera's most beautiful classics of all time, Puccini's La Bohème, with its stellar young cast of rising stars. A new production of Così fan tutte, a.k.a. "The School for Lovers" is a fresh take on Mozart's classic. Jenůfa is a company premiere of Janáček's gripping drama. The capstone of the season will be the world premiere of The Thirteenth Child (think Alfred Hitchcock meets Harry Potter) by Poul Ruders, acclaimed composer of The Handmaid's Tale.

THE SANTA FE OPERA

WHAT DISTINGUISHES THIS FESTIVAL?

At Santa Fe Opera, the show begins long before curtain. Opera fans come early for tailgate parties in the parking lot, preview dinners, or the prelude talks. Performances of the highest quality are presented in a dramatic theater with stunning views of the surrounding mountain landscape.

SAVONLINNA OPERA FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The season’s new production is Rossini’s The Barber of Seville, a whirl of a sitcom in which the twists and turns are exploited to the full in the direction by Kari Heiskanen. The Opera Festival Choir will have a magnificent chance to shine in Mozart’s Great Mass in C minor in Kerimäki Church. Two old favorites are back on the program: Verdi’s Rigoletto, an agonizingly tear-jerking classic in which the drama unfolds in some of the world’s best-known arias, and Mozart’s The Abduction from the Seraglio, a carefree, thought-provoking story about cultural encounter—a topic that never ages.

La Scala, Milan, is bringing to Savonlinna Verdi’s seldom heard I masnadieri and a gala concert, while even the Castle swifts and swallows will start to dance in the Wiener Volksoper’s production of Strauss’s Die Fledermaus. Also on the program for 2019 is the Timo Mustakallio Singing Competition, renowned for its efficient jury work, once again talent-spotting promising singers for the stars of the future.

SHENANDOAH VALLEY BACH FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The centerpiece of the 27th Festival will be Haydn's The Creation, on Saturday, June 15, in Lehman Auditorium on the campus of Eastern Mennonite University. The theme of "creation" will be echoed throughout the Festival, as audiences are invited to experience the "creative" process with open rehearsals, pre-concert lectures, and behind-the-scenes social media posts. In addition, a performance of Darius Milhaud's La Création du monde on Friday, June 14, will explore an entirely different take on the subject, referencing African folk mythology and the sounds of Harlem jazz.

Festival Concerts feature a full orchestra and choir, plus nationally known soloists soprano Sharla Nafziger, tenor Kenneth Gayle, and baritone David Newman. Additional offerings include six chamber music concerts, a Leipzig Service, youth programs, and the Virginia Baroque Performance Academy.

SPOLETO FESTIVAL USA

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The 43rd season features more than 140 performances in opera, dance, theater, and music of all kinds, from choral, symphonic, and chamber to bluegrass and jazz. Musical highlights include a contemporary re-staging of Richard Strauss's Salome, directed by Patrice Caurier and Moshe Leiser, conducted by Steven Sloane, and starring Melanie Henley Heyn, who makes her American stage debut in the title role. Tenor Paul Groves sings Herod, and Kostas Smoriginas is Jochanaan. The Westminster Choir performs Joby Talbot's Path of Miracles, with staging by John La Bouchardiere, and Bach's St. John Passion, conducted by Dr. Joe Miller and accompanied by the Spoleto Festival USA Orchestra and the Charleston Symphony Orchestra Chorus.

The Bank of America Chamber Music series celebrates Geoff Nuttall's tenth anniversary as director and host. Performers include Anthony Roth Costanzo, Inon Barnatan, Pedja Muzijevic, Daniel Phillips, Tara Helen O'Connor, Doug Balliett, Meena Bhasin, Amy Harman, Paul Holmes Morton, and David Byrd-Marrow. Paul Wiancko serves as the season's composer in residence; he premieres an oboe quintet for James Austin Smith and the St. Lawrence String Quartet. Other works include Copland's Appalachian Spring for 13 musicians; Britten's Serenade for Tenor, Horn, and Strings; and Schubert's beloved Octet.

Orchestral works include Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet Suite; Shostakovich's Fifth Symphony; three scores by Michael Gordon, set to the films of Bill Morrison; and an evening pairing Fanny Mendelssohn's Overture in C and Stravinsky's Dumbarton Oaks Concerto. Music in Time's contemporary selections include Julius Eastman's Stay On It, Steve Reich's Pulse and Runner, and Georg Friedrich Haas's in vain.

STRESA FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

In 2019 the Festival reaches its 58th edition. Among the most renowned artists we point out the presence of soloists Maurizio Pollini and Akiko Suwanai and of the Russian National Orchestra. Artistic Director Gianandrea Noseda, will direct the Orquesta de Cadaqués. There will be two world premieres: a concert with music inspired by Stravinsky's Pulcinella by Dan Tepfer, and a new soundtrack commissioned by the Festival for the screening of the silent film La chute de la maison Usher by J. Epstein.

There will also be an event focused on the figure of Artemisia Gentileschi with video projection, a dance show on a selection of music from Prelude and Fugue by Shostakovich, new music inspired by the soundtrack of Lisbon Story, performed by Teresa Salgueiro, and a literary and musical meeting with writer Simonetta Agnello Hornby.

TANGLEWOOD

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The 2019 Tanglewood season will see Boston Symphony Music Director Andris Nelsons in residence throughout the month of July, leading 14 programs, including a first for Tanglewood—a concert performance of Wagner’s complete Die Walküre with the Tanglewood Music Center Orchestra and a star-studded cast, presented in three concerts over a two-day period, July 27 & 28. Tanglewood will also be the setting for the BSO’s Nelsons-led world premiere of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Kevin Puts’s The Brightness of Light, a work for voices and orchestra inspired by letters between Georgia O’Keeffe and Alfred Stieglitz; it was written especially for Renée Fleming and Rod Gilfry, who will be the featured soloists. Fleming, a favorite guest artist at Tanglewood since her BSO debut there in 1991, has been named the Koussevitzky Artist for the 2019 Tanglewood season. The BSO and Andris Nelsons open the orchestra’s summer season on Friday, July 5, with Mahler’s Symphony No. 5 and Mozart’s Piano Concerto No. 22, with Emanuel Ax as soloist—the first of 20 BSO programs throughout July and August.

The 2019 Tanglewood season will see the launch of the Tanglewood Learning Institute (TLI), offering participants new levels of wide-ranging enrichment and education initiatives, and the opening of a major new four-building Center for Music and Learning, home to the TLI’s summer programming and supporting the activities of the Tanglewood Music Center, the BSO’s acclaimed summer music academy since 1940.

TEATRO NUOVO

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Will Crutchfield’s Teatro Nuovo presents semi-staged productions of Bellini’s La Straniera and Rossini’s La Gazza Ladra at The Performing Arts Center at Purchase College and Jazz at Lincoln Center’s Frederick P. Rose Hall in Manhattan. An additional performance at The Church of the Heavenly Rest in Manhattan features Rossini’s Stabat Mater paired with Donizetti’s Symphony in E minor. Christine Lyons, Derrek Stark, Hannah Ludwig, Alisa Jordheim, Oliver Sewell, and other rising, young, Bel Canto talents star in these performances following weeks of intensive training led by Crutchfield.

Crutchfield and Rachelle Jonck, from the keyboard, share musical leadership with principal violin Jakob Lehmann. In the company’s second summer, it will again showcase the critically acclaimed Teatro Nuovo Orchestra, a hand-picked ensemble hailed as “transformative” (The Wall Street Journal) in these American presentations of 19th-century operas on period instruments. Teatro Nuovo continues the work of the widely heralded Bel Canto at Caramoor training program. Its festival also offers additional daily vocal and instrumental concerts and a full range of master class, lecture, and panel-discussion events.

VERBIER FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The Verbier Festival, now in its 26th year, presents 17 days of performances, master classes, talks, screenings, and education events. The Festival runs from July 28 to August 3 in the picturesque setting of the Swiss Alps, with repertoire ranging from baroque to contemporary, including the world premiere of Three Lullabies for viola and piano by Thomas Adès, commissioned by the Festival. The Festival's mission is to encourage encounters between great musicians and young aspiring artists from around the world. Audiences witness these unique encounters and partnerships through the Festival's program of concerts and free events set in the unrivaled surroundings of Verbier.

Summer 2019 features today's most sought-after musicians in its two main venues—the Salle des Combins and Église de Verbier. The program includes 75 leading international artists who will perform solo, chamber, and orchestral concerts alongside the next generation of artists in the Verbier Festival Academy, Verbier Festival Orchestra, and Verbier Junior Orchestra. Visiting musicians include Andrés Schiff, Evgeny Kissin, Sheku Kanneh-Mason, Leonidas Kavakos, Daniil Trifonov, Sergei Babayan, Vadim Repin, and Renaud Capuçon. Music Director Valery Gergiev opens the Festival with violinist Kristóf Bárti and the Verbier Festival Orchestra; he'll also conduct the eagerly awaited performance of Strauss's Die Frau Ohne Schatten with Brandon Jovanovich, Matthias Goerne, and Nina Stemme.

VIRGINIA ARTS FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

For 23 years the Virginia Arts Festival has presented world-class performances throughout Southeastern Virginia and continues to transform the cultural scene. Among the more than 40 events and performances planned this season, the 2019 season will be full of awe-inspiring “firsts,” including two world premiere dance works from Dance Theatre of Harlem and Richard Alston Dance Company, commissioned through the Festival’s partnership with the 2019 Commemoration, American Evolution. The season also marks a new chapter for chamber music programs as Van Cliburn Gold Medalist Olga Kern takes the stage as the new Connie & Marc Jacobson Director of Chamber Music.

Other highlights: The East Coast premiere of Shakespeare’s Antony and Cleopatra, originally produced by Shakespeare’s Globe in London with JoAnn Falletta and the Virginia Symphony Orchestra; Emmy and Tony Award-winning actress and singer Kristin Chenoweth with the VSO under Broadway conductor and Norfolk native Rob Fisher; the 23rd Virginia International Tattoo in “Courage and Commitment: A Salute to Women in the Military,” bringing together military bands, pipe and drum corps, dancers and more together for an awe-inspiring display of music and might.

THE WALDEN SCHOOL YOUNG MUSICIANS PROGRAM

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Walden's Young Musicians Program (YMP) provides an unparalleled creative summer experience for musically inclined students ages 9-18. Part school, part camp, and part festival, the program convenes each summer for five weeks in the beautiful Monadnock region in Dublin, New Hampshire. Through rigorous and innovative daily instruction, students hone their musical and creative skills within a supportive community of like-minded peers and mentors, with a goal of improvising and composing original works. Young musicians participate in and witness the thrilling process of bringing new music to life by attending concerts, classes, and open rehearsals. The program includes weekly Composers Forums where student compositions are played and discussed, and the summer culminates with the popular Choral Concert. In 2019, the International Contemporary Ensemble (ICE), Aurora Nealand, Ensemble Dal Niente, composer Kati Agócs, among others, will be in residence. www.waldenschool.org (Application deadline: May 1, 2019; fee: $50)
